Alumni Testimonials

Ashmeen Kaur, an alumna of CT Institute of Law (B.Com LL.B., 2018–2023), is currently working as a Legal Researcher at the Punjab and Haryana High Court. She shares that her time at CTIL was enriching and professionally rewarding. The institute provided a strong academic foundation along with practical legal exposure, which significantly enhanced her research and analytical skills. She expresses her sincere gratitude to the faculty members and the CT Group for their constant guidance, encouragement, and support in shaping her professional journey.

Navdeep Kaur, a proud alumna of CT Institute of Law (B.Com LL.B., 2019–2024), expresses her sincere gratitude to the CT Group of Institutions for building a strong foundation for her legal career. Her journey at the institute was enriched with academic excellence, practical exposure, and continuous mentorship from dedicated faculty members. She is currently associated with the Bar Association BBS and served as an Executive Member (2023–2024). She has also participated in the National Lok Adalat, gaining valuable experience in alternative dispute resolution. Navdeep credits CT Institute of Law for shaping her professional growth and extends heartfelt thanks to the faculty and management for their constant support and guidance.

My name is Anantika Sharma (B.A. LL.B., 2020–2025). I am currently practicing at the Jalandhar District Court under the guidance of Vinay Sharma.

My time at CT Group of Institutions was a valuable learning experience that strengthened my legal knowledge and practical understanding. The guidance and support of the faculty played a significant role in shaping my foundation in the legal field.

My name is Dhanesh Chadha (B.A. LL.B., 2019–2024), and I have been practicing law since 2024 under the guidance of Senior Advocate Gurvinder Arora. Studying at CT College of Law was a privilege. The institution provided strong practical exposure, especially through moot court competitions, which greatly enhanced my professional skills. The dedicated faculty made complex legal concepts easy to understand and apply in practice. I am sincerely grateful to the CT Group of Institutions for providing quality education, excellent guidance, and a solid foundation in law that continues to support my professional journey.

My name is Nikhil Gautam, and I am currently pursuing LL.M. from CTU. My experience at CTIL has been excellent, and the constant support of the faculty has greatly contributed to my academic and professional growth.

I have published a research paper titled “Adultery and Indian Law” in the International Journal of Scientific Research and Technology. I have also earned certificates of participation from Petroleum Conservation Research Association (PCRA), Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB) Environmental Quiz, and the Ministry of AYUSH International Day of Yoga Quiz (2021).

My name is Vivek Bagri (B.Com LL.B., 2017–2022). I have been practicing law since 2022 under Senior Advocate Mandeep Singh Sachdev. I also manage a real estate venture, including a 6-acre housing project named Vivek Avenue. Studying at CT College of Law was a rewarding experience. As part of the first law batch in 2017, I initially found the subject challenging, but the guidance of dedicated faculty members made learning practical and easy to grasp. The college's focus on moot courts and practical exposure has greatly supported me in my legal practice. I sincerely thank the CT Group for its guidance and excellence in legal education.
